28 EX PARTE APPPLICATION BY APPELLANT, GEORGE WYNNS,
FOR ADDITIONAL TIME TO FURNISH NOTICE DESIGNATING
RECORD ON APPEAL AND STATEMENT OF ISSUES; SUPPORTING DECLARATION.

1 Appellant George S. Wynns respectfully requests a two-week extension of 2 time for the filing of Appellant's Notice Designating Record on Appeal for his
3 appeal filed November 20, 2023. The Court has stated that the Designation of the 4 Record is now due December 4, 2023. The Appellant needs further time to file
5 and serve the Designation and Statement of Issues on Appeal for good cause as set
6 forth in the supporting declaration following:

14 DECLARATION OF GEORGE S. WYNNS

15 1. I am a secured creditor of the Debtor, Blockfi, Inc. and related entities that 16 have been holding 4.22 Bitcoin belonging to me, held as security for loans.

17 2. On November 20, 2023, I filed Notice of Appeal, appealing this Court's
18 final orders denying my motion for return of my Bitcoin in exchange for payment
19 of my loans, entered on November 6, 2023, and also this Court's Order granting 20 the Debtor's Tenth Omnibus Objection to Certain Claims, entered on or about 21 November 20, 2023.

22 3. I reside in California, am not eligible to file electronically, and have had to 23 make my filings via U.S. Mail or Fedex. I am representing myself I pro se.

1 4. Fedex lost my originally submitted Notice filing which should have been
2 filed, with associated supporting documents, on November 6, 2023.
3

4 5. New Jersey process server Charles Deeck filed a skeletal notice of appeal
5 for me on November 20, 2023, because Fedex had not yet found my documents.
6 Later the same afternoon, the Court Clerks, who had somehow received the lost
7 Fedex package, filed the documents I had originally sent. There were thus two 8 notices of appeal filed. The one filed for me by Mr. Deeck was clearer concerning 9 what was being appealed and was filed first.
10

12 6. I am currently 300 miles away from my home and office at 124 Brewster
13 Street, San Francisco, California, and expect to return within a few days.
14

15 7. Because of the distance from my home and office, I need additional time to 16 prepare, serve, and deliver to the Court my Notice Designating the Record for the 17 Appeal. I therefore respectfully request that the time for furnishing the same be 18 extended from December 4, 2023, until December 20, 2023.

20 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States the 21 foregoing is true and correct.
